COMMISSIONER'S CHALLENGE

Adopt At Least One (or One More) Justice-Involved Resident

Commit to making a difference for your community. Sign the pledge below and join the Commissioner's Challenge.

My house of worship (or faith-based organization) and I are committed to creating an opportunity for a second chance at success for men and women with a criminal record. We know that the task of assisting all of these residents, our neighbors, brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers and congregants in finding housing, employment, behavioral health services, spiritual guidance and genuine holistic care requires full-scale community support. We also acknowledge the necessity of allowing time and space for healing, restoration, and redemption.

Therefore, we pledge to wrap our arms around, and nurture in our care, at least one (or one more) justice-involved resident no later than October 2018.

For every faith group that pledges and subsequently adopts and agrees to assist and nurture a minimum of one justice-involved individual, Franklin County will issue a challenge coin and, if desired by the company, highlight their efforts on the Franklin County website under the designation "Champions for Second Chances."

Please return this form to the Franklin County Reentry Coalition by giving it to any Coalition member, by faxing it to 614.525.5549, or by emailing it to the Reentry Coalition Coordinator, Kysten Palmore, at kapalmor@franklincountyohio.gov.

The mission of the Franklin County Reentry Coalition is to effectively and efficiently integrate justice-involved individuals into the community to lead crime-free, productive lives; by promoting and supporting community services and programs.
